INAUGURAL
SEASON 2025

WOLLONDILLY PERFORMING ARTS CENTRE

Wollondilly Shire Council acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land in Wollondilly, the Dharawal and Gundungurra peoples.

We acknowledge the living culture and spiritual connections to the land for the Dharawal and Gundungurra people and all Aboriginal Nation Groups that may have connections to the area; and that Wollondilly is remarkably placed as the intersection of many tribal lands.

We recognise the traditional Custodians have occupied and cared for this Country over countless generations and celebrate their continuing contribution to the Shire.

We also acknowledge and remember the Dharawal and Gundungurra peoples who were killed in the Appin Massacre on 17 April 1816.

We acknowledge our collaboration with the Tharawal Local Aboriginal Land Council.

Welcome!

Welcome to the inaugural season for the Wollondilly Performing Arts Centre - LIVE IN 2025!

It is an honour to be charged with bringing to life this beautiful new building, which will transform the cultural life of the region, offering world-class entertainment to local audiences, and inspiring creative opportunities for our home-grown creatives.

Our Vision - Creating Space for Everyone – reflects our ambition to ensure our the new PAC realises its potential to inspire all members of the community to experience and participate in the arts.

Our carefully curated program is designed to delight ages 2 to 102 with circus and symphony, film festivals and First Nations, big bands and beloved books, living legends, crazy Kiwis, comedy and contemporary dance, Phantoms and puppets, Taiko drumming and Shakespeare in the garden. I am delighted to present two of Australia's major performing arts companies – Sydney Symphony Orchestra and Australian Dance Theatre in our first season, but equally proud to showcase the excellence of regional theatre – including internationally acclaimed independent artists from our own shire. Featured local artists such Clockfire Theatre Company, Bonnie Curtis Projects and Casablanca Orchestra could hold their own anywhere.

Every child should have the opportunity to experience the magic of live performance, and we have selected an exquisite program for children and young people, designed to ignite curiosity and inspire a lifelong love for creativity and the theatre. With workshops, drama classes and work experience opportunities, we hope the PAC will help provide our young people with pathways to creative careers.

To our media, business and beverage partners, our community arts supporters and you our creative community – thank you for joining us on this thrilling adventure – we hope you enjoy the ride.

A note from Mayor Matt Gould

It is a pleasure to present this curated season of live performances at the brand new Wollondilly Performing Arts Centre.

I am absolutely thrilled to see this transformative project delivered for our community. The building will provide a state-of-the-art local venue for music, theatre, exhibitions and civic events; and will be a major injection into the cultural life of Picton and the wider Wollondilly area.

The shows that make up this inaugural season have been selected to meet the diverse needs of our community. They include a wide range of genres, such as classical music, circus, drama, comedy, dance and dedicated First Nations, children's and seniors' programming. The program also includes a focus on local independent professional performance companies.

Our community will really benefit from the performance program that will be delivered here at the Wollondilly Performing Arts Centre, with access to shows that would normally only be available by travelling to Sydney or even further afield. Most importantly, our young people will have the opportunity to access quality professional theatre right here in our region.

I hope you all enjoy the shows!

AFTER DARK THEATRE PRESENTS

BARBAROI

A dystopian world, industrial, cyberpunk in the not-too-distant future. Gangs overrun the neon-clad side streets, the underbelly and outcasts rule the pitch-black forgotten ruins of an old district. There is chaos, there is danger in the shadows. There is a Showdown happening downtown; a lone wanderer stumbles amongst a crew of meta-human misfits, the Barbaroi. Will she have what it takes to be one of them? This is do or die, this is her initiation.

Inspired by the world of shadows where anything goes, and the gritty underbelly of society, BARBAROI is a blend of high octane circus, cabaret and physical theatre. Complimented by finely tuned lighting and special effects, this show will lead audiences down the rabbit-hole and asking, 'Who are the BARBAROI?'

Barbaroi draws heavy influence from the late 80's and early 90's anime cyberpunk genre, utilising the genre's rich colour palette blended with its industrial and unrefined overtones.

Particular works like AKIRA and Ghost in the Shell inspired the costumes, look, feel, and lighting of the Barbaroi. It has created a unique work that is able to be adapted for conventional theatre and non-conventional spaces like outdoor spaces, warehouses and even alleyways. The Barbaroi is a flirt with the dangerous; high level circus up close and personal.

THE SYDNEY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PERFORMS

BRASS MASTERPIECES

The Sydney Symphony comes to Picton for one performance only, with a concert that celebrates the rich and triumphant sound of brass instruments and the Orchestra's world-class brass section.

From grand entrances to triumphant finales, brass instruments are often called upon for music's most moving moments. And the Wollondilly Performing Arts Centre is the ideal venue to experience all the glory of these gleaming instruments.

It was artworks by his friend Viktor Hartmann that inspired Mussorgsky to write Pictures at an Exhibition, and the brilliant musical colours of the brass will bring them to life. The towering final movement, The Great Gate of Kyiv, is one of classical music's best-loved moments, and is even more spectacular as a brass-only fanfare.

The music of the Baroque is known for being grand, bright and sparkling, and each member of the section gets to shine in an enchanting and elegant suite of music from Purcell's The Fairy Queen.

Coupled with gorgeous shorter works by John Williams and Morten Lauridsen, there is no music better suited to the rich, glowing soundworld of brass instruments than these shimmering classics.

Plenty of Fish in the Sea is a physical and highly visual piece of narrative theatre.

A castaway is rescued from the surging seas to the devout fishing village Saint-Cotriade. Conversation is sparse and in his temporary lodgings he comes face to face with an unsettling kind of hook up culture. This is a darkly humorous and physically adventurous contemporary fable where the fish bite day and night and passions...swell.

Embracing old-school theatricality, Plenty of Fish in the Sea wildly spins a different kind of net that has us caught - hook, line, and sinker!

A SLIGHTLY ISOLATED DOG PRESENTS

THE TROJAN WAR

Following the success of DON JUAN & JEKYLL & HYDE, A Slightly Isolated Dog brings you the third instalment in the trilogy of very sexy works: THE TROJAN WAR! This explosive & hilarious work uses a cast of faux-French performers to create a joyful, interactive celebration.

Theatrical magic, wicked pop songs & fierce wit is combined to create a delightful romp through this classic twisted tale. When Paris is born, it is prophesied that he will bring the destruction of the city. To avoid this fate, he is sent away to be sacrificed. But this starts a series of events that will inevitably lead to the destiny his parents were so desperately trying to avoid. THE TROJAN WAR tells the story of the tragic fall of Troy. It's a raucous celebration of our ridiculous lives: using this classic tale of gods and heroes to playfully explore questions around the current chaos of our times.

“... legendary storytelling riddled with witty anachronisms... entirely voluntary participation, immediate love stories juxtaposed with the mythologised ones... mind-bending metaphysics, fabulous physicality, sublime singing and superb sound effects.”

“You Are a Doughnut” is a ‘riot of fun’ (The Clothesline) and a ‘sure winner for the whole family’ (Glam Adelaide) — presented by the ‘masters of educational entertainment’ (Play & Go).

Benny, the plucky puppet protagonist in The Paper Escaper, knows they are destined for greater things than a simple pop-up book. But in a world that's trying to squash Benny between its pages – from a wily dancing fire to a disillusioned illustrator – Benny will need the help of a new friend to achieve their dreams.

Benny doesn't want to tell the story 'The Maker' has written for them. As their parents get nervous about the consequences of defying the 'The Maker', Benny rips himself from his story. Alone and in an unknown land, Benny comes across a mysterious tentacle and friendship blooms. But 'The Maker' is determined and his fire is hungry – and Benny and their friend must work together to survive.

What is our heart's journey when our world is split in two?

Grief-stricken by her late father's sudden death, Amelia Alyssa embarks on a journey to her ancestral homeland, Lebanon. She bears witness to the ancient Baalbek ruins of the Bekaa Valley while lodging nearby at the Hotel Palmyra, a time capsule of a flourishing yesteryear.

An exploration of migration and sacrifice brings Amelia face to face with the question "where is home"? Past and present collide as Amelia enters the land of the dead where a chorus of shapeshifting wanderers evoke a descent into an archaeological underworld with mythic overtones.
